

Beautiful

G                    D                    C                    G
How can they call on the one they've not believed in?

G                    D                    C                    G
How can they Believe in one of whom they've never heard?

G                    D                    C                    G
How can they hear if there's no one to tell them?

G                    D                    G
How can they hear if no one's sent?

C2                G
But Beautiful, Beautiful

G                    D                    C                    G
Beautiful are the feet of those who bring Good News.

C2                G
Beautiful, Beautiful

G                    D                    C                    G
Beautiful are the feet of those who bring Good News.

Words and Music by Jason McGibbon
2007